

Counter Narratives for Schools

When?

Wednesday 5th July 2017 10am–3pm

Where?

Liverpool Hope University

What?

A FREE participatory training event. This workshop will support teachers to: facilitate conversations about extreme views / counter negative stereotyping of particular communities / present positive narratives relating to diversity

Who?

Teachers at all levels, trainee teachers, teaching support staff

Why?

To open dialogue through working with communities, and increasing their resilience and ability to safely explore difficult issues relating to extreme views.

Liverpool World Centre
Raising global awareness among the people of Merseyside